

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name	Dr P. S. Bakker
Place of residence	Abcoude, the Netherlands
Positions	Assistant professor VU University Amsterdam (Faculty of Law, Private-Law Department) Lawyer Houthoff Buruma Author Groene serie Kluwer
Educational activities	Contract law, law of obligations, postacademic education
Research activities	Sjoerd Bakker (1973) completed his legal studies in Leiden. His Phd on reasonableness and fairness as a norm of conduct was written at the VU University. After a period of advising, litigation and research relating to commercial contract law, corporate law, and liability law, Sjoerd became a university tutor at the Faculty of Law, Private-Law Department of the VU University. He holds his current position at the VU since January 2013. Sjoerd conducts his research within the research programme "Public Contracts: Law & Governance" of the VU University Centre for Law & Governance.
Expertise	Contract law, law of obligations

Main publications (all published in Dutch)

- Unforeseen circumstances: the current state of affairs (with J.W. de Groot), WPNR 2 May 2009/6797, p. 369-377.
- The exceptional duty of care when terminating credit agreements – have the seven fat years of Rabobank/Aarding passed? (with D. Haas), Maandblad voor Vermogensrecht 2010/11, p. 293-299.
- Limits to the banking sector duty of care with respect to third parties (with A. Knigge), Tijdschrift voor Compliance 2011, no. 1/2, p. 53-59.
- Remedies for insufficiently informed shareholders (with J.W. de Groot), Geschriften vanwege de Vereniging Corporate Litigation 2010/2011, Deventer: Kluwer 2011, p. 251-263.
- Interpretation of commercial contracts (I and II), WPNR 2011/6890, p. 477-485 and WPNR 2011/6891, p. 502-511.
- Dissertation: "Reasonableness and fairness as a norm of conduct", Deventer: Kluwer 2012.