

Lodz, 28th March 2014

CV – short version

Anna Górczyńska, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, is employed in the Chair of the European Economic Law, Faculty of Law and Administration, University of Lodz, Poland.

She is the Director of the Centre of Public Procurement and Public-Private Partnership. The center was grounded on the Faculty of Law and Administration, University of Lodz as the first Polish scientific and research center on efficiency of public procurement system.

She read law on the University of Lodz and prepared her dissertation titled “Public procurement in the EU law”. She is actually preparing the habilitation on public-private partnership. She was also law student on German universities (Muenster, Giessen, Bonn In 1999 she participated in the Internationale-Parlaments-Praktika in Bundestag, Germany. In 2000-2002 she was working in regional lobbying offices in Brussels.

Her main scientific interests and publications refer to public procurement law, public-private partnership, European economic law, competition law, regional policy, structure funds of the EU, e-administration, ICT, sports law.

Anna Gorczynska is an experienced university lecturer (lectures in English and in Polish on Public Procurement Law, European Economic Law, European Legal System, EU Structure Funds Projects) as well as trainer on the courses for both contracting authorities and entrepreneurs. Under her supervision were written numerous master thesis.

She regularly participates as a guest speaker in the international conferences (eg. 2010 - International Public Procurement Congress in Benjin, China; 2011 – Copenhagen, Public Procurement Global Revolution V; 2013 – Public Procurement Global Revolution, Nottingham).

In 2006-2012 she directed postgraduate studies on European structure funds on the Faculty of Law and Administration, University of Lodz. In 2013 she was nominated for the director of postgraduate studies on e-administration.

Anna Gorczynska is an author and co-author of varied legal expertises and opinions prepared for Polish Government Legislative Center, self-government, chambers of commerce and other legal firms.